POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Norwich.

Because it is the evidence of a Norwich citizen.
Testimony easily investigated.
The strongest endorsement of merit.
The best proof. Read it:
Mrs. Roland Ockery, 262 Franklin Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "Pains in the small of my back caused me great suffering. Whenever I stooped sharp twinges darted through my body and I was handicapped in doing my housework. I felt miserable when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store. Their good effect was soon noticeable, and I continued taking them until the trouble was entirely removed."

NO MORE TROUBLE.

Some years later Mrs. Ockery said: "You may continue to publish my former statement. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I have been in good health since. Others of my family have taken this remedy with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE.

In Case Against Edward Valliant, Charged With Statutory Offense.

The case of the state vs. Edward Valliant of Moosup, charged with a statutory offense against a 15 year old girl in the same village, occupied the superior court all of Monday.

The defense brought its case to a conclusion in the morning with testimony as to the character of the accused, who also told his story, denying absolutely that any improper relations existed between the girl and himself. The arguments were made by State's Attorney Charles E. Searls and for the defense by J. J. Desmond of Norwich and Judge Bill of Danielson.

Judge Williams' charge to the jury occupied about three-quarters of an hour, concluding about 3.30. The judge read the statutes applicable to the case, explaining the matter of reasonable doubt and burden of proof in criminal cases, and reviewed at some length the opposing claims of counsel in the case and the evidence submitted.

About 5 o'clock the jury returned, stating they had not yet reached a decision. They were thereupon sent back for further discussion after a short explanation by the judge. Having arrived at no agreement by 5.45, Judge Williams excused the jury and adjourned court until this morning at 10.15, when they will again retire to the jury room and endeavor to agree upon a finding.

The Howarth arson case will follow their release, as it was scheduled for Tuesday.

The election of the town of Windham held a short meeting Monday afternoon for the transaction of routine business and payment of bills, then adjourned, on account of the absence of First Selectman Mitchell, who was in

Vacuum Milker at Brewster Farm
Milks Sixteen Cows in 35 Minutes—
A Model Barn—Plate Glass Window Broken.

There have been many visitors to Shady Knoll farm, the home of A. G. Brewster within the last two or three days to see the work of his new cow milker just installed and used for the first time Saturday. This remarkable machine is manipulated on the vacuum principle and will milk three cows at the same time. The process is performed rapidly, quickly, thoroughly and with perfect comfort to the cow. A two horsepower gasoline engine, which operates a system of exhaust pumps, furnishes the vacuum for the attachment that is applied to the cow's teats. These pumps can be moved all along the rail guide over the head of the stalls. Mr. Brewster, Monday morning milked sixteen cows in 35 minutes. By hand it takes two men one and one-quarter hours to do the same job.

It was expected that the cows would be a bit nervous at the first trial, but such was not the case. Those who visited the farm had also the opportunity to inspect Mr. Brewster's new barn, which is built entirely of stone with cement interior throughout, both walls and floors, except that on the raised platform where the cattle stand and lie to sleep, the floor is made of cork bricks, at once soft and warm. The barn is all in one room 12x34 feet and when fully equipped with the patent stalls and stanchions will accommodate 50 cows. In all its fittings no pains were spared to make it what it is, an up-to-date, sanitary and comfortable barn in every particular. Ventilation scheme is made complete by side windows and air entrances in the roof.

The mangers are of the patent convertible pattern and can be turned up over the heads of the cattle, leaving underneath a deep trough in which running water passes in abundance before each cow. At the back of the stalls is an overhead track with a roller cage which is used to remove the litter. At the north end of the barn stands the big silo, handy to the feed door, where the ensilage is thrown by a roller cage which is used to remove the litter.
